Tuesday 15th October Lunch and Conversation: 12.30 to 2.00pm - 'Living and Dying Well'

At the meeting of the Church Council on the 24th September it was noted that there are Parliamentary moves to introduce an 'Assisted Dying' Bill. There has been more about this in the news in recent days. It was decided at the Church Council to have a meeting to give us an opportunity to talk together about concerns and implications. Please sign up on the list in the foyer, for lunch at 12.30pm on the 15th.

East of York Churches Together Harvest Lunch: A note from Alyson Christy

On Saturday 19th October from 12 noon to 1.00pm you are invited to bring a neighbour and come to share a Harvest Community Lunch at St Aelred's hosted by the East of York Churches Together. There will be a delicious meal, activity sheets for children, and a very warm welcome. Please let Alyson know if you would like to attend.

Property Audit: A note from Andrew Hutchinson

The Property team are undertaking an audit of the premises room- by- room. This will commence on Friday 25th October. We will be disposing of furniture and other items that are no longer required. If you have items on the premises which have no future use would you kindly remove them before the above date. Volunteers would be greatly appreciated to assist in this decluttering exercise. The objective is to comply with Health & Safety regulations, Fire Risk, etc, and helping in future to maintain good working practices. Many thanks - Andrew
